

AS FOR ME AND MY HOUSEHOLD, WE WILL SERVE THE LORD.

JOSHUA 24:15

WHOM SHOULD WE FOLLOW?

Today's Gospel is the conclusion of the Bread of Life discourse in John. After Jesus' continued insistence that he is the Bread of Life come down from heaven, and that his words are "Spirit and life," most of his disciples drift away. The Twelve, however, affirm their faith in Jesus, whom Simon Peter professes to "have the words of eternal life." In the first reading, Joshua and the Israelites are preparing to enter the Promised Land, and Joshua asks the people to decide which god they will follow, the LORD their God, or the gods of neighboring peoples. The Responsorial Psalm features Psalm 34, the "taste and see" psalm, that reflects the kinds of struggles the Israelites faced during their sojourn in the wilderness. In the second reading, Paul gives counsel for maintaining domestic peace and happiness.

CROSSROADS IN LIFE, THEN AND NOW

Sometimes in life we find ourselves at a crossroads, faced with an existential choice that will alter the course of our life. We are aware, at these moments, just how significant our choice will be and that there will be no going back.

In both the first reading and the Gospel we see such moments calling people to make such choices. Which god will the Israelites follow? Joshua, their leader after Moses, knows that the area around the Promised Land is occupied by other peoples, with other gods. Perhaps remembering how, after Moses had gone up Mount Sinai, the Israelites set up a golden calf to worship, Joshua worries that they may again be susceptible to such attractions. He is asking them for a commitment, and proclaims, "As for me and my household, we will serve the LORD."

CAN WE STAY WITH JESUS?

The people who were frenetically following Jesus, crossing the lake twice to pursue him, eating the bread he miraculously provided, are now puzzled by Jesus proclaiming himself as "the bread of life," and they are incredulous. They can go with him no farther, so they gradually drift away. The Twelve, however, stay with Jesus. What else could they do? Who else offers such a profound vision of human life? Peter expresses it well: "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life."

Not all of our life's crossroads involve our faith, but some do. Perhaps there is someone in your parish who chose to become Catholic and is now alienated from their family; someone who is unhappy with a new pastor and wondering about looking for a different parish; someone who was especially distressed by the clergy sex abuse and prayed long and hard before deciding that she needed her parish to get through it. There may be many in your parish facing such choices, and they need our support and our prayers. In the meantime, we can hope that someday they will again experience Jesus as the Holy One of God, offering them words of eternal life.

Deceased members of the Gurgigno Family.

The Blessed Virgin Mary Candle will burn from 8/23/2021—8/29/2021 in memory of Elvira Hughes.

We ask parishioners to please notify the rector if you will be moving so that we can update our records. Thank you!

We have recently restored our lovely statue of The Blessed Virgin Mary. We ask your cooperation in refraining from touching or placing flowers or any items on Mary or on her pedestal. These items often damage the finish on Our Lady. Thank you so much!

The people of HAITI under the missionary work of Fr. Rick Frechette and Sean Forrest are in need of prayers as they suffer the devastating effects of the recent major earthquake and rainstorms.

Jesus is the bread of life. Our world still hungers. Who will feed the multitude? Consider a life of ministry or encourage others to do so. Pray for the men & women who will serve your local church as priests or religious. If you think you are being called to serve the church call Fr. Michael Casey, Director of Vocations, Archdiocesan Pastoral Center, at phone number (860) 761-7457, or e-mail vocations@aohct.org or visit the web at: www.hartfordpriest.com. Please pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood, diaconate & religious.

Our “Project Baby Love” collections will not take place until further notice. We thank our generous parishioners who have supported this Ministry over the years! A very special thank you to Diana Hamel who began this initiative in our parish. Thank you to all those who delivered the diapers & wipes and to Greg and Cynthia Calegari for their continued support!

We have some remaining 2022 MEMORIAL MASSES/SANCUARY/BLESSED VIRGIN MARY CANDLES AVAILABLE. To reserve a mass for a loved one or friend call the rectory at (860) 529-2533. Our weekday Mass offering is $10 & our weekend offering is $20. Our Candle offering is $10.00.

Please notify the rectory if you have a loved one who is terminally ill before it becomes an urgent matter. Father Moran prefers to offer the Sacrament of the Sick while your loved one is still able to understand the Sacrament clearly.

Attention all parents/guardians: During Mass we request that children would always be accompanied to the restrooms by a parent or adult.

F.Y.I: We have a CINTAS Professional First Aid Cabinet available if an injury occurs to a parishioner during Mass.

Please alert an usher to notify the Sacristan of the injury. We have a disabled restroom in the west corner of Fr. Crawford Hall.

What is The Hartford Bishops' Foundation?

Founded in 2016, The Hartford Bishops' Foundation (HBF) is dedicated to engaging donors in helping the Archdiocese of Hartford carry out the mission of the Catholic Church. The independent Foundation is led by a volunteer Board of Directors representing the Archdiocese's constituencies: parishes, schools, and Catholic organizations. For more information, please visit www.hartfordbishopsfoundation.org

What is Forward with Faith?

Forward with Faith (FWF) is a fundraising campaign to build a vibrant community of faith in the parishes, schools, and Catholic organizations. This vision will help to fulfill the mission of our Church in the Archdiocese of Hartford: to be living signs of communion with God and to be his instruments for redemption in the world.

What are the objectives of Forward with Faith?

Forward with Faith seeks to raise funds to support:

- Vibrant Parishes: Half of all funds raised will help the parishes meet their needs;
- Educating to Re-ignite the Faith: by expanding and strengthening learning for students, administrators, teachers, clergy, and the faithful;
- Champions in Service: by helping Catholic Charities with better facilities and new programs; and,
- Innovation and Emerging Opportunities that promote long-lasting change, strengthen our schools and parishes, and meet the evolving needs of the community.

PRAYER CORNER

DECISIONS

There is an axiom that states, “Not to decide is to decide.” This saying was popular in the turbulent times of the Vietnam War. It urged us not to allow others to answer the moral questions raised by our nation’s involvement in that terrible conflict, but to decide for ourselves. Making such choices is never easy. Avoiding them is common. Jesus, for his part, was not only a gallant risk-taker, but a clear decision-maker. As he pursued the mission to which the Father called him, he continually decided for us and for the Father. He worked hard to lay out a scenario that would enable others to make similar choices. Never did he make decisions for others or force others into decisions, even decisions that had eternal ramifications. Jesus is inviting us to make such decisions today. We won’t be absolutely sure. What is sure, however, is the command that issues from God’s word: Take the risk. Decide!

FEAST OF FAITH

Come, Spirit!

The presider at the Eucharist can choose from among a number of different Eucharistic Prayers, all of which follow a similar pattern. Almost always, they begin with an epiclesis, a Greek word that means “invocation upon” or “calling over here.” At this moment in the prayer, the priest calls down the Holy Spirit upon the gifts of bread and wine that we have brought to the altar: “Father, we bring you these gifts. We ask you to make them holy by the power of your Spirit, that they may become the body and blood of your Son” (Eucharistic Prayer III). The words of the prayer are accompanied by the ritual gesture of the laying on of hands, the ancient sign of the gift of the Spirit, which is also used in most sacramental celebrations, from the rite of confirmation to the ordination of deacons, priests, and bishops. Liturgists sometimes call this first epiclesis the epiclesis of consecration. Later in the Eucharistic Prayer, there will be another epiclesis, the epiclesis of communion, as the priest asks that the Holy Spirit be sent upon us to transform us. “Grant that we, who are nourished by his body and blood, may be filled with his Holy Spirit, and become one body, one spirit in Christ” (Eucharistic Prayer III).

INCARNATION FAITH FORMATION SUMMER PRAYER CORNER

Loving God, we ask you for your continued blessings and protection for our family as we enjoy the relaxing days of summer. We thank you for giving us the gift of the summer season with its warm sun and gentle breezes that remind us of your radiance and love. Be present with us as we share special family time together laughing, talking, playing, eating, and praying. Let us remember the importance and gift of family that you have given us as we cherish one another. Let us praise you and your creation in all the beauty that surrounds the season – in the splashing ocean waves, in the warm summer sand, in the lush green grasses and mountains, on the lakes and rivers, in the fresh vegetables and fruits that abound, and in all the wonder of nature that we experience during this time. We thank you and praise you for the gifts of life, family, and your unending graces and love. Amen.

Church of the Incarnation Faith Formation

Faith Formation Registration for the 2021-2022 academic year for families in Grades K-9 will take place shortly. Look for email notifications and more detailed information coming your way shortly for options beginning this fall. All registration will take place on-line via our website at: www.thechurchoftheincarnation.com

Church of the Incarnation Parishioners: For your information: In order to comply with the new regulations from our church envelope company, we ask parishioners to PLEASE refrain from cutting, taping, stapling or putting any stickers on their envelopes. This makes it much more difficult for the machines to process our church envelopes. Thank you!

INCARNATION WOMEN'S CLUB UPDATE: The Women's Club will resume General Meetings in October. The membership mailing will be sent out in early September and include information about club activities planned for the remainder of the year.

East Catholic High School: East is open throughout the summer Mon. - Thurs. 8 am - 2:30 pm and continuing with accepting applications for incoming freshmen, as well as transfer students. Please check us out on www.echs.com or call 860-649-5336, ext., 6238 or 6456.

The Jubilee House, a program of the House of Bread, is looking for volunteers to assist with teaching English to adult immigrant and refugee population in Hartford. Please join us for our next session of the ESOL program which will begin in mid-Sept. - Mon. through Thurs., 9:30-11:30 am. We ask for a 2-hour commitment from our volunteers one or more days per week. The Jubilee House is at 40 Clifford Street in Hartford (former St. Augustine School convent). Call Michele at (860)247-3030, ext. 1048 for more information.

The Year of Saint Joseph: In December 2020, Pope Francis declared 2020-2021 the Year of Joseph, thus celebrating the 150th anniversary of the proclamation of St. Joseph as Protector of the Universal Church. Marking the occasion, the Pope issued the apostolic letter "Patris Corde" (With a Father's Heart) in which he lovingly reflects on St. Joseph as a beloved, caring, obedient, accepting, creatively courageous working father, and a father in the shadows. An opportunity to delve into the richness of the Pope's letter will be offered at Christ the King Parish on 8 Wednesdays from September 8th to October 27th. Sessions will be held at 1:30 p.m. (Group 1) and at 7:00 p.m. (Group 2). Call Sister Mary Bernard (Shanley) at: marybshanley-csj@hotmail.com.
