

The Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.

CONTINUALLY LEARNING FROM JESUS

Today's Old Testament selection, from Isaiah's "Fourth Song of the Suffering Servant of God," describes God's Servant as one who "gives his life as an offering for sin" (Isaiah 53:10) and celebrates the mighty power of that self-offering: "through his suffering, my servant shall justify many, and their guilt he shall bear" (53:11). As always during Ordinary Time, this Old Testament reading prepares us for today's longer form Gospel. Jesus incarnates the redemptive suffering that Isaiah foresaw in the offering of God's Servant, as well as the covenantal restoration that the Servant's sacrifice achieved. The reading from Hebrews confirms our finding peace in continually learning from Jesus, whatever our deepest flaws and trials: for Jesus, our "great high priest" (Hebrews 4:14) is not "unable to sympathize with our weaknesses," for Jesus was "tested in every way" that we are (4:15).

MISUNDERSTANDING JESUS

Throughout this part of Ordinary Time, Mark's Gospel tracks the disciples' progressive misunderstanding about Jesus' mission and the nature of discipleship. We heard Jesus make two predictions about his Passion on Sundays in September, and just before today's Gospel episode, Jesus informed the Twelve: "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and the scribes, and they will condemn him to death and hand him over to the Gentiles who will mock him, spit upon him, scourge him, and put him to death, but after three days he will rise" (Mark 10:33-34). Despite Jesus' three predictions and his definition of "glory" and "power" as serving others in humility, James and John still imagine Jesus as bound for a glorious earthly messiahship. How moving that Jesus, rather than scolding James and John as he had previously rebuked Peter, instead begins teaching them patiently, "You do not know what you are asking" (10:38).

SELF-EXAMINATION

Knowing that Jesus' throne of glory is also a "throne of grace," from which Jesus bestows "mercy and grace for timely help" (Hebrews 4:16), today's Gospel suggests sincere self-examination: How do we approach Jesus and make our requests? What do we ask for: what Jesus wants us to do or, like James and John today, do we demand "whatever we want" from Jesus? Does the world in which we live and work focus our hearts on glory to the right and power on the left? Or does "the cup we drink," "the baptism" we've received inspire us to gladly become servants of all, like the Jesus who has made us his disciples? Do we also avoid imitating the "indignant ten" other Apostles who rebuked James and John? Or are we also quick to see the errors of others and rash in passing judgment on them? How do we live in response to Jesus who gave his life "as a ransom for many"?

Event About Racism: We invite all of you to join us for a very important discussion, titled "Why Does Racial Diversity Matter?" on Monday, October 25th at 7 pm in the church basement at Christ the King. This event is being sponsored by the Social Action Committee and is open to our parish and surrounding community. This interactive workshop will engage participants in a group dialogue about how racial diversity has influenced and impacted their lives. Speaker is Nicole R. Miller, M.Ed., who most recently started the organization, Equity Corps Group LLC, whose mission is to "Re-educate America One Community at a Time."

To our generous parishioners: Due to our participation in the Archdiocesan Forward in Faith Campaign, this year there was no Annual Collection.

The emphasis this year will be achieving the goals set forth in the Forward in Faith Campaign. Half of all funds raised will help parishes meet their own needs. The remaining funds will help The Hartford Bishops' Foundation carry out the mission of the Catholic Church by meeting the evolving needs of the parish communities.

What is Forward with Faith?

Forward with Faith (FWF) is a fundraising campaign which will build a vibrant community of faith in parishes, schools, and Catholic organizations. This vision will help to fulfill the mission of our Church in Hartford: to be living signs of communion with God and to be his instruments for redemption in the world.

How will my parish benefit from the campaign?

Each parish receives 50% of the funds raised from its parishioners for its own needs. Once a parish reaches its target, 80% of funds over the target will be retained by the parish. The remainder of campaign funds may return either directly or indirectly via HBF grant making activities within its funding priorities.

Will the Archbishop's Annual Appeal continue?

Yes. The Archbishop's Annual Appeal (approximately $10 million per year) provides the day-to-day support to ministries and charitable works of the Archdiocese. Donors will therefore be asked to maintain current annual gift levels in addition to campaign gifts.

Will the campaign affect parish offertory?

Parishes rely on their offertory collection. Parishioners are asked not to diminish giving to the offertory or the Archbishop's Annual Appeal collection, but rather to consider an increased commitment to their parish and to the Archdiocese.

With so much uncertainty, is this the best time for a campaign?

The events of 2020 are unprecedented and have resulted in extraordinary needs in our parishes, schools, and Catholic organizations. As parish life returns to the "new normal" we set our sites on resuming the good work of the Church through important initiatives, including FWF.

We realize that not everyone will be able to support the campaign. By combining our gifts together we can make a difference not just in our own parish but throughout the archdiocese. Every gift no matter the size, is needed and greatly appreciated.

PRAYER CORNER

THE HUMANITY OF JESUS CHRIST

All three readings today support—each in its own way, of course—a reflection on the humanity of Jesus Christ and how that humanity played a key role in the drama of our salvation. Although not chosen specifically to coordinate with the other two readings, today's second reading does in fact carry forward the theme of Christ's humanity in a remarkable way. The author of the Letter to the Hebrews highlights the solidarity that exists between Jesus and us, precisely because in his human nature Jesus has known the same sufferings and testing that are our own experience. Because he can "sympathize with our weaknesses," we can "approach the throne of grace to receive mercy." For the author of Hebrews, the humanity of Jesus was an essential requirement for his redemptive death, as well as an invitation to us to find in Jesus someone with whom we can identify in our daily struggles.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — My servant shall justify many, and their guilt he shall bear (Isaiah 53:10-11).

Psalm — Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you (Psalm 33).

Second Reading — Let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help (Hebrews 4:14-16).

Gospel — Whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all (Mark 10:35-45 [42-45]).

FEAST OF FAITH.....Only Say the Word

The bread is broken, the banquet is prepared, and now we are invited to the feast. Once more the priest holds the host, now broken, for us to see, and invites us to behold the one "who takes away the sins of the world." Truly blessed and happy are those invited to this meal, which is a foretaste of the heavenly banquet, the supper of the Lamb (Revelation 19:19). We respond to this invitation with a prayer to the Lord: we acknowledge that we are not worthy, but at the same time we are confident that the One who comes to us can heal us, body and soul. This prayer echoes the story of the centurion in Luke's Gospel. The centurion, a Gentile, asks healing for his servant, but does not consider himself worthy to have Jesus come under his roof—he believes that Jesus can heal his servant with a word, without even seeing him. Jesus is amazed at his faith. It is the same for us. We believe that Jesus speaks to us, comes to us, dwells with us, even though we neither hear his voice nor see his face.

Pastor's Corner – From Fr. Nick Melo..... October 17, 2021

The Catholic Church in Wethersfield is now just 2½ months from coming together into one parish. This is certainly exciting, because we have the opportunity to create a new, dynamic parish to reflect who we are as a community of believers.

I do not think it is a coincidence that our Holy Father Pope Francis convenes today (October 17, 2021) a global Synod, asking Catholics all across the world to reflect on who we are as a church and where the Holy Spirit is leading us as a church.

I know that the Archdiocese just completed a Synod of our own, but this is different. It is different because Pope Francis envisions a church in which everyone has a say in how we live out the Gospels.

The term he uses – one that we will be hearing frequently – is ‘synodality’.

This was first envisioned by the Second Vatican Council which decreed that the governance structure of the church could no longer be from the hierarchy on down, but rather from the people on down.

To this end, Pope Francis has entitled this three year process ‘For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, Mission’. You can see from this title how things need to work – we come together, we discuss and pray together, and then we go forth to do the work of Christ together.

The process that is being asked of Catholics world-wide is this:

A synodal Church, in announcing the Gospel, “journeys together:” How is this “journeying together” happening today in your particular Church? What steps does the Spirit invite us to take in order to grow in our “journeying together”?

In order to respond, you are invited to:

- a) ask yourselves what experiences in your particular Church the fundamental question calls to mind;*
- b) reread these experiences in greater depth: What joys did they provoke? What difficulties and obstacles have they encountered? What wounds have they brought to light? What insights have they elicited?*
- c) gather the fruits to share: Where, in these experiences, does the voice of the Spirit resound? What is he asking of us? What are the points to be confirmed, the prospects for change, the steps to be taken? Where do we register a consensus? What paths are opening up for our particular Church?*

As I read all of this, I could not help but see the distinct similarity to what we are and will be going through as we come together as one parish. I would ask each of you to spend some time in your private prayer to reflect on this path.

I have asked Fr. Moran to assist me in putting together a Transition Team consisting of members of both Incarnation and Christ the King Parishes. They will serve as our Council in the immediate future. Together we will ask for your input in identifying the positive things of each of our parishes and what we would see that needs to change, so that, as the document says, we can see the paths opening up for us.

Social Action Committee at Christ the King: We are always in need of more help/ideas to carry out our busy calendar. Next meeting is Tuesday, Oct., 19th - 7 pm, church basement at Christ the King.
