CONSOLATION FROM GOD

Today’s reading from Jeremiah, Israel’s sorrowful and suffering prophet, whose readings usually signal and prepare us to hear Jesus’ Gospel suffering, is from Jeremiah’s “Book of Consolation.” Jeremiah sets aside traditional sorrow and instead bids God’s chosen people—and us, as God’s baptized covenant people—to celebrate the Lord’s miraculous “harvest”: “Shout with joy; exult; proclaim your praise” (Jeremiah 31:7). In this “harvest,” God declares Israel already “delivered,” while promising to transform a “remnant” (31:7) into “an immense throng,” “gathered from the ends of the world” (31:8). Though these people are still in need, Jeremiah declares their tears already gone, replaced by God’s consolation and guidance to living waters. As a fitting response, the great “Harvest Psalm” makes us, at least spiritually, former “captives,” whose joyous return feels like “dreaming” (Psalm 126:1). Then, Mark’s Gospel—again—shows the prophetic vision for the world fulfilled as Jesus heals, and we ourselves are once again challenged to live more faithfully our baptismal covenant.

SIGHTLESS BARTIMAEUS’ VISION

At first, Bartimaeus is not yet “on the way”—Mark’s “Gospel code” for Jesus’ journey to Jerusalem and our journey of discipleship—but at least near the way, “by the roadside” (Mark 10:46). Still only on the sidelines, Bartimaeus cries out what becomes Christianity’s “Jesus Prayer”: “Jesus, son of David, have pity (most translations, mercy) on me” (Mark 10:47–48). Sightless, Bartimaeus is nonetheless fearless: “many rebuked him, telling him to be silent” (10:48). Sightless, Bartimaeus is already insightful: “son of David” acclaims Jesus Messiah. Seen in the context of baptism and discipleship, sightless Bartimaeus’s response resembles both journey to baptism as catechumen and pilgrimage from baptism as what Pope Francis calls “missionary disciples” (Evangelii Gaudium, Joy of the Gospel, 119–121).

RESPONDING LIKE BARTIMAEUS

Once healed, “illumined” as in Baptism, Bartimaeus’ discipleship response to Jesus challenges us to examine our own. Again this week, Hebrews reminds us that Jesus is our merciful high priest. Though sinless, Jesus “is able to deal patiently with the ignorant and erring” (Hebrews 5:2) like all high priests. Hebrews invokes Melchizedek, whose meeting with Abraham signals the joining of God’s primeval cosmic covenant made with Noah and God’s scriptural covenant with Israel, leading to “the new and eternal covenant” sealed in Jesus’ Blood. Like Melchizedek, Jesus transcends history’s boundaries of race and nation to gather earth’s fragmented, even warring factions into the great harvest of a humanity renewed and redeemed. So our baptismal commitment and discipleship’s journey bid us become instruments of Christ’s unity and peace to all whom we encounter “on the way.”

Are we sitting still, isolated, safely on the sidelines? Or do we cry out, like Bartimaeus, for Jesus’ mercy, understanding that we are bound to extend to others, ceaselessly and unconditionally, the mercy that we ourselves need? As part of that mercy, then, are we cowed into safe, respectable silence by a world rejecting Christ’s countercultural teachings, or do we dare speak up and speak out on behalf of others?

PRAYER CORNER

RECOGNIZING JESUS

The star of today's Gospel is a panhandler. Bartimaeus is blind, yes, but he is probably also homeless and filthy, a real nuisance to respectable citizens. Even so, it is Bartimaeus who recognizes Jesus as the Messiah, places all his faith in him, throws aside everything he has (his cloak), begs him for mercy, receives new vision, and follows Jesus on the way to suffering and death in Jerusalem. How desperate will we have to get before we can do the same?

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — I will lead the people to brooks of water, on a level road, so that none shall stumble (Jeremiah 31:7-9).

Psalm — The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy (Psalm 126).

Second Reading — It was not Christ who glorified himself, but rather the one who said to him: You are my son: this day I have begotten you (Hebrews 5:1-6).

Gospel — Immediately the blind man received his sight and followed Jesus on the way (Mark 10:46-52).

Pastor's Corner – From Fr. Nick Melo..... October 24, 2021

The Catholic Church in Wethersfield is now just 2½ months from coming together into one parish. This is certainly exciting, because we have the opportunity to create a new, dynamic parish to reflect who we are as a community of believers.

I do not think it is a coincidence that our Holy Father Pope Francis convened last Sunday (October 17, 2021) a global Synod, asking Catholics all across the world to reflect on who we are as a church and where the Holy Spirit is leading us as a church.

I know that the Archdiocese just completed a Synod of our own, but this is different. It is different because Pope Francis envisions a church in which everyone has a say in how we live out the Gospels.

The term he uses – one that we will be hearing frequently – is ‘synodality’.

This was first envisioned by the Second Vatican Council which decreed that the governance structure of the church could no longer be from the hierarchy on down, but rather from the people on down.

To this end, Pope Francis has entitled this three year process ‘For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, Mission’. You can see from this title how things need to work – we come together, we discuss and pray together, and then we go forth to do the work of Christ together.

The process that is being asked of Catholics world-wide is this:

A synodal Church, in announcing the Gospel, “journeys together:” How is this “journeying together” happening today in your particular Church? What steps does the Spirit invite us to take in order to grow in our “journeying together”?

In order to respond, you are invited to:

- a) ask yourselves what experiences in your particular Church the fundamental question calls to mind;
- b) reread these experiences in greater depth: What joys did they provoke? What difficulties and obstacles have they encountered? What wounds have they brought to light? What insights have they elicited?
- c) gather the fruits to share: Where, in these experiences, does the voice of the Spirit resound? What is he asking of us? What are the points to be confirmed, the prospects for change, the steps to be taken? Where do we register a consensus? What paths are opening up for our particular Church?

As I read all of this, I could not help but see the distinct similarity to what we are and will be going through as we come together as one parish. I would ask each of you to spend some time in your private prayer to reflect on this path.

I have asked Fr. Moran to assist me in putting together a Transition Team consisting of members of both Incarnation and Christ the King Parishes. They will serve as our Council in the immediate future. Together we will ask for your input in identifying the positive things of each of our parishes and what we would see that needs to change, so that, as the document says, we can see the paths opening up for us.

Limited Edition of Commemorative Ornaments of Incarnation Church will once again be available the first weekend of November in the narthex/Fr. Crawford Hall. Sponsored by Incarnation Men’s Club. Ornaments are $5 each, are shatter resistant and will grace any Christmas tree.

Crawford Hall to reflect on and pray together as they prepare to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation on October 30 at St. Joseph's Cathedral. These students were together as a parish faith formation "family" from 1st to 6th grade (2012-2018)! We wish them & all 2021 Confirmation Candidates many blessings as they embark on a new journey as faith-filled young adults inspired by the Holy Spirit to spread the Good News and serve others. Please pray for our young people! CLW picture: Michael & Elena Campailla & Milena Chudy carry the Children's Liturgy of the Word banner as Elementary Faith Formation Families gathered for Opening Day Mass October 17. This was the very first CLW since the start of the pandemic in March of 2020. CLW has been an integral part of our Sunday liturgy for more than 20 years now beginning in January 2001 bringing the Gospel message to our children at their developmental level!

Thank you to all Faith Formation Families who joined us on Sunday, October 17 at 10:30 a.m. for our Opening Day Mass and CLW celebration. It was such a warm and wonderful welcome to have our families back with us as we begin a new and exciting "family" faith formation program this year. We ask God's blessings on our children and their parents as they continue to grow in faith.
