FULFILLED IN YOUR HEARING

The “fulfilled in your hearing” statement of Jesus today is also the conclusion of last week’s Gospel, with the words of Isaiah about the breadth of God’s mercy and justice at its heart. The response of the crowd in the synagogue is united: all are amazed, but all likewise ask if he’s not merely the son of Joseph the humble carpenter. Jesus calls them out for seeming to think that he ought to be doing his ministry only locally, and—selfishly—only for them. (After all, they know where he comes from!) When Jesus essentially replies “nope” through some proverbs and prophetic stories, all the crowd gets angry at his implication that the fulfillment in Jesus is for everyone, not just for them. When our “take care of your own” reflex kicks in, we would do well to recall that this isn’t the attitude of Jesus, nor is it the attitude of his mission that we continue to this day.

YOU’VE BEEN WARNED

The opening of the reading selected from Jeremiah is surely one of the most comforting in scripture. Imagine! God knew me before my bodily conception; God dedicated me before my birth or any human dedication rites; God appointed me a prophet! Then comes the uh-oh. Jeremiah is warned that his appointment as a prophet will bring opposition, against which God’s prophets must stand up. Somehow the appointment as God’s prophet seems like it should be a bit happier, with the glamor that we might think will come from having friends in high places. Yet, just as there are many forces in the world arrayed against the divine will and divine goodness, so too are they arrayed against God’s prophets. A second round of assurances comes to Jeremiah, a pledge that God will be with Jeremiah to strengthen him. God doesn’t promise a turmoil-free life, but does vow to be Jeremiah’s strength.

JESUS, SON OF JEREMIAH

In the synagogue at Nazareth, a similar turn of events takes place. When Jesus speaks of the Spirit’s anointing being upon him, the anointing described in Isaiah, the crowd is amazed, and seems like they even want to take credit, since he’s a local boy. Then Jesus speaks some words of tough love, and “local boy” pivots to “who does he think he is?” You couldn’t blame Jesus, in that moment, if he recalled the words of Jeremiah, his prophetic ancestor. Though the crowd drove Jesus out of town and up a hill to throw him to his death, his time had not yet come. The strength and protection that God promises to prophets came for Jesus that day, as he passed through the mob’s midst, unharmed. He passed through their midst to continue the work for which the Spirit had anointed him. For us who follow the prophetic heritage of Jesus this day, we’ve been warned. But we’ve also been assured of God’s care.

PRAYER CORNER

TO BE A PROPHET

Today's readings show us what it is like to be a prophet. As Jeremiah recounts his call, God warns him that he will need strength and perseverance to withstand the hostility he will face from "Judah's kings and princes" and "its priests and people" (Jeremiah 1:18b). God also assures him that they "will not prevail over you, for I am with you" (1:19). The psalm reflects both of these struggles as well as deliverance from them ("salvation").

This is exactly what Jesus experiences in today's Gospel. After he claims that his own mission is the same as what Isaiah proclaimed, at first the people marvel at his "gracious words" (Luke 4:22). Soon, however, they become suspicious, skeptical, and hostile, even threatening to kill him. But just as God promised to deliver Jeremiah, so Jesus "passed through the midst of them and went away" (4:30).

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — God appoints Jeremiah as prophet to the nations (Jeremiah 1:4-5, 17-19).

Psalm — I will sing of your salvation (Psalm 71).

Second Reading — Love with its many facets is the most important of the virtues (1 Corinthians 12:31 — 13:13 [13:4-13]).

Gospel — When Jesus claims his salvific mission is for all people, not just the Jews, he is expelled by the enraged members of the Nazarean synagogue (Luke 4:21-30).

Pastor's Corner – January 30, 2022

Where does the time go? 2022 is already 1/12th over! Wow!

It has certainly been a productive and busy first month, and we are progressing nicely toward our merger into one parish later this year. This coming week is just as busy. Here are some of the things happening in our church community this week.

First, today we begin Catholic Schools Week. Corpus Christi School has been, and continues to be, a vibrant and integral part of who we are as Catholics here in Wethersfield. We have a dedicated faculty and staff who work with our parents tirelessly to instill a Catholic education in our children. I thank you for your on-going support of our school as well. Following the 10:15 Mass at Christ the King, there will be an Open House to which you are all invited.

Second, Wednesday is the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, also known as Candlemas Day. We will have a special blessing of candles to be used for various liturgies in our church throughout the year at morning Mass, and invite you to bring a candle you use for your prayer time at home to be blessed at that time as well.

Third, Thursday is the Memorial of St. Blasé, bishop and martyr. Traditionally, the church has had a Blessing of Throats on that day, asking the intercession of St. Blasé. While we will give a General Blessing at Masses this weekend, individual blessing of throats will take place at morning Mass on Thursday.

On Friday, we will have a Praise & Worship Holy Hour at Christ the King at 6:30. All are welcome to attend.

And next weekend, please keep the men of Christ the King Parish in your prayers as they make their annual retreat at Holy Family Retreat House in Farmington.

The Men of Incarnation will make their retreat there February 25-27. It is open to men from either parish. Call Audrey at Incarnation rectory for more details.

I thank our Lord for all the blessings He has and continues to bestow on us here in Wethersfield!
