Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. This Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the church in the Holy Land.

The second collection next weekend will be a special Easter Second Collection. Envelopes for that second collection can be found in this week's bulletin. Thank you for your generosity.

Lenten Regulations: Catholics ages 14 and older are to abstain from meat on all Fridays during Lent. The rule does not apply when health or ability to work would be seriously impacted. Catholics who have celebrated their 18th birthday, but have not yet marked their 59th are to fast on Good Friday. On days of fast, one full meal is allowed. Two other meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to individual needs but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids, including milk and juices, are allowed.

Things you can do to Help our Planet: April 22nd is Earth Day. Global warming is a known fact and is increasing. There are many simple things that can be done to help save our earth. The following are some things you can do to help decrease the effects of global climate change: turn off lights, all appliances, and the computer when not in use; take a bus, ride a bike, or walk instead of driving a car; talk to your family and friends about global warming; plant trees to help reduce greenhouse gases because they absorb carbon dioxide from the air; recycle as much as you can; buy products and appliances that are energy star rated; buy recyclable products instead of non-recyclable ones because it usually takes less energy to make recycled products than to make new ones; use solar energy; use less plastic and paper products; don't print out receipts at the ATM, gas station, etc.; don't keep the water running when you brush your teeth, etc. All of these things will help save our planet from the growing effects of global climate change that is human induced.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

Christ the King Parish will be welcoming The Scally Brothers, who will perform for us after 5:15pm Mass on May 1st. We are in need of help. We are in need of volunteers to assist with various tasks. If interested in volunteering, contact Spencer Malley at 860-919-6125, or spencer.malley@uconn.edu. Thank you!

PRAYER CORNER

THE MESSAGE OF CHRIST'S LOVE

From the proclamation of the Gospel at the beginning of the liturgy, we know that today is different, not only because we hear two Gospel passages, or because we hold palms and move in procession. Today begins Holy Week, a time set apart, a week in which to listen, pray, reflect, and take to heart the truth of Christ's passion, crucifixion, death, and ultimately, resurrection. It takes a week, and a lifetime, to truly hear the message of Christ's love. It is difficult for us to comprehend that Jesus willingly sacrificed himself, so we must hear the story again and again. Let this week be for us a new moment of faith in which we, together with the criminal who was crucified with Christ, cry out, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."

TODAY'S READINGS

Gospel at the Procession with Palms — Jesus' entry into Jerusalem (Luke 19:28-40).

First Reading — In spite of my sufferings I am not disgraced. I am not put to shame (Isaiah 50:4-7).

Second Reading — Christ emptied himself, and God filled this emptiness with exaltation (Philippians 2:6-11).

Pastor's Corner – April 10, 2022

“At that very hour some Pharisees came and said to [Jesus], ‘Get away from here, for Herod wants to kill you.’ He said to them, ‘Go and tell that fox for me, ‘Listen, I am casting out demons and performing cures today and tomorrow, and on the third day I finish my work.’ . . . Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often have I desired to gather your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing!’”

As we enter into this most holy week and reflect on the intense sufferings of Jesus, I found these words of Nadia Bolz-Weber, a Lutheran pastor, to be insightful and meaningful and challenging as we walk with Jesus through Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday.

“Never once have I stopped being afraid just because someone said that.

I AM afraid. . . .

So maybe our hope for becoming unafraid is found in . . . the part where Jesus calls Herod a fox and then refers to himself as a mother hen.

A mother hen.

Maybe that beautiful image of God could mean something important for us: and by us I mean we fragile, vulnerable human beings who face very real danger. I can't bear to say that this scripture is a description of what behaviors and attitudes you could imitate if you want to be a good, not-afraid person. But neither can I tell you that the Mother Hen thing means that God will protect you from Herod or that God is going to keep bad things from happening to you.

Because honestly, nothing actually keeps danger from being dangerous.

A mother hen cannot actually keep a determined fox from killing her chicks. So where does that leave us? I mean, if danger is real, and a hen can't actually keep their chicks out of danger, then what good is this image of God as Mother Hen if faith in her can't make us safe?

Well, today I started to think that maybe it's not safety that keeps us from being afraid.

Maybe it's love.

Which means that a Mother Hen of a God doesn't keep foxes from being dangerous . . . a Mother Hen of a God keeps foxes from being what determines how we experience the unbelievably beautiful gift of being alive.

God the Mother Hen gathers all of her downy feathered, vulnerable little ones under God's protective wings so that we know where we belong, because it is there that we find warmth and shelter.

But Faith in God does not bring you safety.

The fox still exists.

Danger still exists.

And by that I mean, danger is not optional, but fear is.

Because maybe the opposite of fear isn't bravery. Maybe the opposite of fear is love. So in the response to our own Herods, in response to the very real dangers of this world we have an invitation as people of faith: which is to respond by loving.”

Faith Formation

Easter Food Collection

Social Action Committee's annual Easter Food Collection is this weekend to provide Easter meal items/restock food pantries. This is a total parish effort with the Religious ED program/Corpus Christi School having already collected certain food items. Social Action Committee is asking for hams & basic staples, rice, bags of potatoes, bars of cheese, crackers, canned vegetables, soups, tuna, & Easter candy/cookies. Any of these will be gratefully appreciated. If you would prefer to donate money, please place the donation in an envelope marked "Easter Meal" & place in altar basket or mail to CTK's rectory. Please bring donations to the vestibule of CTK by 11am Sun., April 10th. Food will go to St. Augustine Church, Sacred Heart/Maria Reina de la Paz, St. Martin de Porres Catholic Worker House & Town of Weth. Thank you to all who donated to the Social Action Committee sandwich collection at Christ the King Parish last weekend. Next collection is May 7th/8th. The sandwiches are distributed by ImmaCare in Hartford to people who don't frequent shelters. If you are new to the sandwich collection, here is a guide. Any type of bread may be used. Two (2) slices of meat (such as ham, bologna, salami) & a slice of cheese per sandwich.....About a pound of meat is needed for a loaf of bread. You can vary the ingredients if you don't have enough of one kind to finish the loaf....Please DO NOT put condiments or butter on the bread.....Peanut butter/jelly sandwiches are very popular....Sandwiches are individually wrapped, put back in bread wrapper, twist-tied, & placed in box in church foyer.

Social Action Committee Meeting: Tues., April 19th - 7 pm, St. Joseph's Hall at Corpus Christi Church. Join us, as help is always needed. If you are unable to attend the meeting & wish to get involved, please call Nancy Kiely, committee chair at 860-989-5548 (cell), 860-721-0197 (home), or email nkiely80331@cox.net . We are most grateful to parishioners, Corpus Christi School & Religious Education, who so generously support our Social Action projects.

There are two approaches in modern Christian tradition on how to respond to suffering of peoples: works of mercy and social action. When we see people hurting, our instinct is to help, such as how people come together as a community during natural disasters. We perform works of mercy by directly helping others. The corporal works of mercy are to feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, clothe the naked, visit the sick, shelter the homeless, visit the imprisoned, and bury the dead. By following the works of mercy, we will become the persons God meant us to be. But we must also continually work for justice to help find solutions to the social problems that cause people to be homeless.

Human Trafficking

Human Trafficking is a world-wide public health issue, which violates the sanctity, dignity, & fundamental rights of the human person, one of our principles of Catholic Social Teaching. Anyone can become a victim regardless of sex, age, race, citizenship status, socioeconomic level or educational achievement. Pope Francis described human trafficking or modern-day slavery as "a scourge that wounds the dignity of our weakest brothers & sisters." The Holy Father appeals to each of us "to open our eyes, to see the misery of those who are completely deprived of their dignity/freedom, and to hear their cry for help & help them". What can you do? Become a Partner or Mentor through the Care & Support Program, a joint effort by The Office of Catholic Social Justice Ministry (OCSJM) & The Underground. This is a great thing for families with teenage children to do, or for any adult. 4 of us from the Social Action Committee have signed up to be a Partner. As a partner, you may be asked to send encouragement notes/holiday cards to your mentee, provide a holiday gift or food items & to pray for the mentee. The OCSJM is keeping a list of available partners, including individuals or groups of individuals. To become a partner call Office for Catholic Social Justice Ministry, Lynn Campbell, Director, lynn.campbell@aohct.org or 860-242-5573. Lynn will contact The Underground & you will be assigned a victim of human trafficking who is on their journey towards independent living.

ENCOUNTER HOW WE ARE ALL SISTERS AND BROTHERS

During Lent, we traveled to Guatemala, Bangladesh and Rwanda, where families are doing some pretty amazing things. Let's review what we learned: We all have dreams. What we do to achieve those dreams makes a difference in our lives & the lives of those we love. Raúl and Lilian in Guatemala achieved their dream of starting a business. Now they hope to grow that business so others can benefit. Noornobi in Bangladesh wanted to help his family succeed. Now his niece & nephew can attend school and work towards their dreams. Glorioso and her husband in Rwanda wanted their children to attend a good school. Now they earn enough money to make that happen. Many children around the world are malnourished, so their parents/communities are going the extra mile to make sure they get better. Sometimes it takes hard work and a desire to learn new things to succeed. On this Holy week there's still plenty of time to continue the three pillars of prayer, fasting & almsgiving to grow with God and our sisters & brothers around the world. We have to practice these pillars regularly—even when it's not Lent. Let us reflect on the theme. As part of God's family, we are all sisters and brothers, no matter where we live. How can we show love and care for our sisters and brothers around the world? RETURN DONATIONS (in check form) TO ALTAR BASKET (AT FOOT OF Lenten Cross at Corpus Christi) OR COLLECTION BASKETS AT EITHER CHURCH DURING MASS. Please return by 4/16 & 17. Thank you and God Bless!
