PSALM PRAYER

"We lift our hearts to the Lord."

Psalm 24: The first line of Psalm 24 sets the stage for the coming of the Lord. Creation has achieved its fullness and the world stands ready to welcome its Firstborn. In St. Paul's Letter to the Galatians we hear of the "fullness of time," the moment when heaven descended to earth, the moment of Incarnation.

Joining with the psalmist we ascend the holy mountain to witness this fullness. The one who ascends must be clean of heart, the psalmist continues. It is the pure of heart who will see God. Jesus has assured the multitudes on the Mount of Beatitudes, just as he assures us.

As we prepare to behold the manifestation of God-with-us, Emmanuel, we look into our hearts for that purity, that preparation that enables us to welcome the Savior. With sinless hands and clean hearts we stand "in this holy place" ready to receive a blessing from the Lord. "Let the Lord enter; he is the king of glory."

Christmas Confessions will be offered on Monday,

December 23rd from 7-8pm. Fr. Mike Rogers will join Fr. Moran and will also hear confessions in English, Spanish & Italian.

Christmas Eve this year is Tuesday, December 24th. Daily Mass will be held at 9am.

Christmas Eve Tuesday Evening, December 24th we will offer a Christmas Eve Vigil Mass at 5pm and a Mass During The Night at 10pm. The Choir will sing at 4pm prior to the 5pm Mass.

PLEASE NOTE: There will be NO MIDNIGHT MASS.

Wednesday, December 25th, Christmas Morning Masses will be held at 8:30am & 10:30am. Rectory will be closed on December 25th. Emergency calls only please.

A Happy, Holy and Healthy Christmas to all from Fr. Moran and the parish staff Christmas Flowers: In your church packet of Nov/Dec. collection envelopes you will find an envelope to provide Christmas flowers in memory of loved ones. Kindly return it before Christmas. Thank you.

SOLEMNITY OF MARY, THE HOLY MOTHER OF GOD IS A HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION...A VIGIL MASS WILL BE HELD ON TUESDAY, DECEMBER 31ST AT 5:30PM. MASSES ON WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 1, 2020 WILL BE AT 9AM & 11AM.

The Mission of Dynamic: Dear Parishioners,

As we begin to prepare for our Dynamic Catholic Event Find Your Greatness, I invite you to go to DynamicCatholic.com and scroll down to Our Mission. There you will view an inspiring 5 minute video with Matthew Kelly explaining the mission of Dynamic Catholic. It will hopefully fill you with enthusiasm as we enter into the preparation time.

Also, as you scroll up to the top of the site, please sign-up for Best Advent Ever: "Join Matthew Kelly and the Dynamic Catholic team for this free e-mail daily reflection that will help you enjoy a few minutes of peace and prayer each day during the hectic holidays." "Amazing Possibilities; God sees them all. It's time you see them too." Blessings and Peace, Noranne S. Wamester, Pastoral Associate and the Members of the Dynamic Catholic Event Planning Team.

Prayers for home:Fourth Week of Advent:

As the fourth candle is lit pray together: Giver of peace and truth, we pray your blessing upon our world. May the violence of war, hatred, and oppression that destroys life come to an end through means of peace, compassion, love, and true respect. Help each of us to be your hands and voice to our world in desperate need of your holy presence.

O God, as light comes from this candle, may the blessing of Jesus Christ come into our world, warming our hearts and brightening our way. May Christ our Savior bring life into the darkness of this world, and to us, as we wait for his coming. Amen.

TRUST IN GOD

On this final Sunday of Advent our scriptures focus on the historical birth of Jesus, who is son of David and Son of God, child and king, Jesus and Emmanuel.

Isaiah the prophet begs Ahaz to ask for a sign, to allow God to offer him reassurance of the survival of the Davidic dynasty. The king hypocritically refuses to “tempt the LORD” in that way (Isaiah 7:12), but the prophet foretells the birth of a son, an heir to the throne, who will prove the Lord’s enduring protection of God’s chosen lineage on the throne of David. The child will be called Emmanuel.

Matthew’s reference to this history in his description of the birth of Jesus highlights the contrast between the faithless refusal of trust shown by Ahaz, and the complete trust in God shown by Mary and Joseph in bringing about the birth of Jesus Christ.

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — You will be given this sign: The virgin shall conceive and bear a son (Isaiah 7:10-14).

Psalm — Let the Lord enter; he is king of glory (Psalm 24).

Second Reading — God has called us to belong to Jesus Christ (Romans 1:1-7).

Gospel — The son born of Mary shall be called Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins (Matthew 1:18-24).

SAINT STEPHEN (first century)December 26

“A man filled with faith and the Holy Spirit” (Acts 6:5): thus Luke introduces Stephen, first of seven deacons chosen by the community for its ministry of charity, first to lay down his life in witness to Christ. As the church’s first martyr, Stephen’s life and death mirror the preaching and passion of Jesus, “the faithful witness” (Greek, martyr) (Revelation 1:5). Like Jesus, Stephen works “great signs and wonders among the people” (Acts 6:8). Like Jesus, when falsely accused, Stephen’s face radiates angelic serenity (Acts 6:15), though his tongue, like Jesus’, is a two-edged sword. As the dying Jesus forgave his executioners, even making excuses for them, then commended his spirit into his Father’s hands (Luke 23:34, 46), so Stephen intercedes for his murderers and begs Jesus to receive his spirit (Acts 7:60, 59). How fruitful both passions! The penitent thief inherits Paradise; Saul, who consented to Stephen’s killing, is transformed into the fearless preacher Paul. Thus Stephen challenges us to bear witness not in words only, but by Christ-like forgiveness toward all.

Our parish Dynamic Catholic team wishes to thank all who came to gather free gifts from Dynamic Catholic. We receive books or CD's each month because our parish belongs to the Ambassadors Club. Our next gift to our parishioners is a copy of Matthew Kelly's new book " Re-Discovering the Saints." The books will be available for pick up in Fr. Crawford Hall after all Masses the weekend of December 21st & 22nd. This is another opportunity to gift yourself, a family member, or a friend.

A Christmas Prayer from Dynamic Catholic

"If we can drag ourselves away from the crazy, noisy, busy world and step into the classroom of silence,
 God will speak to us...
 This Christmas may you hear
 His invitation into the silence so that He can fill your heart with peace like you have never known."

Fourth Sunday of AdventDecember 22, 2019

They shall name him Emmanuel, which means “God is with us.”
